

Materials Needed:

- 12" x 12" Tahitian Princess Swiss Dot cardstock
- 8 1/2" x 11" white cardstock
- 12" x 12" Pink Notebook patterned paper--Creative Cafe
- 12" x 12" Passing Notes patterned paper--American Crafts
- Onyx Black ink--VersaFine
- Copic Markers YG11, E31, G17, and R81
- Dandelion brads--American Crafts
- Dry adhesive, such as a tape runner

Suggested Tools

- Back to School clear stamp set--Our Craft Lounge
- Bookwork clear stamp set--Our Craft Lounge
- Clear acrylic block (to use with clear stamps)
- Scallop circle punch--Marvy Uchida
- Circle punch
- Scallop border punch
- Label die--Spellbinders
- Scoring Tool (optional)
- Paper trimmer

Instructions:

Cut card base to 8 1/2" x 4 1/4. Score and fold in half.

Stamp Getting the Grades sentiment then mask it. Stamp the apple with the worm over the top. Remove mask.

Place die over the image and cut it out. Die-cut a second label (same size) from pink patterned paper.

Cut the pink die-cut in half the long way, and adhere half to the top behind your main image and half to the bottom so that a portion is partially showing on all sides.

Color in the image.

Adhere image to card.

Use decorative scissors or a punch to edge the center piece. Add the white strip of cardstock over the top. Add brads to each side and adhere to card.

Adhere main image to front of the card

Stamp "A+" on pink patterned paper and punch out using a circle punch. Punch a scallop circle and adhere stamped circle on top. Adhere to card.

Add Glossy Accents to the eyes and allow to dry.