

Materials Needed:

- 12" x 12" black shadow box frame (530914)
- 12" x 12" blue stars lace cardstock--KI Memories (6040475)
- 12" x 12" Lily White glitter paper--Doodlebug Design (6034850)
- 12" x 12" Ladybug glitter paper--Doodlebug Design (6034843)
- 8 1/2" x 11" white cardstock--Bazzill
- Fireworks studded sticker--Imaginisce (6040675)
- 3 mm red gems--Mark Richards (6007734)
- 3 mm clear gems--Mark Richards (6007728)
- White Jewelry Box chipboard alphabet--American Crafts (6036919)
- Mini Glue Dots (6007899)
- Dry adhesive, such as a tape runner

Suggested Tools

- Revolution die-cutting machine--QuicKutz
- Diesel Cookie Cutter alphabet dies--QuicKutz
- Paper trimmer
- Craft knife (optional)

Instructions:

- Trim white cardstock to 5 1/4" x 7 1/4" and adhere 5" x 7" photo.
- Trim lace cardstock to 11 1/2" x 11 1/2" and adhere matted photo.
- Spell title on lace cardstock with chipboard letters.
- Die-cut "see" out of white glitter paper and adhere to lace cardstock.
- Add gems to die-cut letters as shown, using a craft knife to assist you, if necessary.
- Adhere lace cardstock to inside glass of shadow box, using Mini Glue Dots along the edges.
- Rest a piece of red glitter paper in back of shadow box, leaving space between lace cardstock and glitter paper.
- Attach firework studded sticker to outside of frame.
- Add gems to ends of firework burst as shown, using a craft knife to assist you, if necessary.